DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-29 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. Applicant's arguments, see pages 7 to 18 of Appeal, filed 17 June 2008, with respect to claims 1-29 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejection of claims 1-29 has been withdrawn.
4. Regarding claims 1-14, the prior art does not teach "control circuitry configured to assign a correlation token to each of the plurality of access adapters, each correlation token for use in connection with accessing an electronic resource via the access adapter to which such correlation token is assigned" and "wherein the control circuitry is configured to initiate the substitution of the shareable spare adapter for the substituted access adapter by reassigning the correlation token assigned to the substituted access adapter to the shareable spare adapter".
5. Regarding claims 15-28, the prior art does not teach " the method further comprising assigning a correlation token to each of the plurality of access adapters, each correlation token for use in connection with accessing the computer resource via the access adapter to which such correlation token is assigned, wherein using the shareable spare adapter to supplant the interface provided by the first adapter includes reassigning the correlation token assigned to the first access adapter to the shareable spare adapter".

6. Regarding claim 29, the prior does not teach "the program further configured to assign a correlation token to each of the plurality of access adapters, each correlation token for use in connection with accessing the computer resource via the access adapter to which such correlation token is assigned, wherein the program is configured to use the shareable spare adapter to supplant the interface provided by the first adapter by reassigning the correlation token assigned to the first access adapter to the shareable spare adapter".

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
